FIRE ADDS TO THE DAYTON HORRORS

Wide Section of City Burning Last Night and This Morning.

FIVE HUNDRED DEAD.

Snow and Cold Weather Add to the Distress—Housetops Barely Appear Above Water in Places.

Dayton, Ohio, March 27.—The fire which started in the business section of the city late yesterday form a busted gas main was still raging at 5 a. m., today unchecked. The flood seems to have made only a slight recession during the night. Many of the big downtown buidings were burned to the water's edge during the night. The death list early today was variously estimated from 200 to 2,000. At best it was only guess work.

A United Press correspondent made a trip through the flooded area in a canoe during the night, btu after progressing a few blocks was forced to abandon it until daylight because of the swift currents racing through the streets.

It is now feared that the fire will take as large a toll of death as did the flood.

Many of the buildings consumed by the on-rushing flames are said to have contained marooned refugees.

One man who ventured a few blocks in a boat reported tha the ahd seen ten persons leap from one flame-swept building into the torrent, never to come up.

Refugees across the mile-wide strip of rushing water which separates the portion of the city now in flames from the outside world, stood most of the night watching the flames as they leaped from one building to another.

The suffering throughout the night was intense. The temperature took a sudden drop and thousands forced to spend the night in open buildings without heat or proper clothing presented a spectacle of the most object misery.

The basis of the claims of a death-list reaching into the hundreds is the burning of the Beckel Hotel n which is was that three hundred people had taken refuge.

The fire consumed the building and the fate of many of the people marooned within is unknown today.

Dayton, Ohio, March 27.—Fire still raged in this city at daylight today. Durin gthe night it consumed several o fthe business blocks of teh town. It was spread by at high wind, leaping from building to building across the rushing waters still from eight to twelve feet deep in the streets. Many refugees huddled in the downtown office buildings and hotels are thought to have perished in the flames.

Estimates of the list of dead, with no definite facts to base them on, was base them on, were raised today and placed at from 200 to 2,000.

Columbus, O., March 27.—Unconfirmed reports reached here during the night from Troy that Piqua was in flames. Latest reports from the latter city said that the death list would be heavy as the result of the flood, but no direct word has been received up to an early hour this morning, concerning the fire.

Cleveland, O., March 27.—Following the floods a heavy snowstorm which has swept northern Ohio shortly after midnight prostrated telegraphic wires and seriously interfered with railroad traffic.

Columbus, O., March 27.—Flood conditions in Ohio were not improved today. If anything they were worse. The rain which had been almost a steady downpour in the flooded western and northern section of the state continued up to a nearly hour this morning and then suddenly turned to snow. This sudden drop in temperature caused intense suffering among the homeless, now estimated at from 150,000 to 250,000.

Cleveland, O., March 27.—Coupled with the floods a heavy snowstorm which has swept northern Ohio since shortly after midnight prostrated telephone and telegraph wires and seriously interfered with railroad traffic.

WOMEN ARE COMING.

A meeting of the women of Alexandria will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Mrs. Barrett's residence, 408 Duke street, when plans will be made in connection with the meeting. Mrs. Barrett has just returned from Atlanta and is therefore unable to send out any personal invitations but she asks that all of the ladies of Alexandria especially those connected with the various clubs and societies to meet at her home tomorrow morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Determined to put a stop to pistol-toting by persons attending the United Brethern Church at Pleasant Valley, near Wolfsville, Md., Rev. Jay Yohe, the pastor, had a constable come into the church, lock the door and search every male member of the congregation. Seven pistols were taken from young men in the church. For some weeks the pastor has been compelled to run a gauntlet of fire from revolvers when on his way home. It is said that while the handlers of the weapons were careful not to shoot the pastor, yet they sometimes let the bullets go too close for comfort, and the minister was in fear of his life. recently during a revival service conditions became almost unbearable. The search by the constabie has put an end to the practice, the pistols being confiscated. She youn gmen were not placed under arrest.

John G. Zimmerman, Chief of Police of Lebanon, Pa., was decoyed to a store in the business section of the city yesterday and mortally wounded by shots fired by George Boyer, a former member of the police force. Zimmerman arirved he opened fire, from the store to quell a disturbance. Boyer had sent in the call, and when Zimmerman arirved he opened fire, the Chief receiving the contents of a shotgun in the abdomen. Boyer, who is 42 and married, is a man of herculean build, and when on the force his fame for fearlessness made him a terror to evildoers. It is said he was dismissed for his intemperate habits, and he had made repeated efforts to be reinstated. He is reported to have harbored a grudge against Zimmerman and to have openly threatened to get even with him.

FLOOD WATERS IN INDIANA LOWER

But Great Suffering is Reported Among People in Wabash Valley.

WANT FOOD AND FUEL

Reservoirs Give Away and Add Terror—People Flee to Hills—Schoolhouses and Churches Full.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27.—The flood waters of Indiana were considerably lower today, but the severest suffering was reported from the Wabash Valley cities now without food, drinking water and fuel for three days.

A relief train reached Peru late last night and sixty boats were engaged in carrying supplies over the intervening water to the three thousand refugees in the court house.

Kokomo, Wabash, Logansport, and Lafayette were in a terrible plight, without relief of any kind in sight. Several persons were reported to have gone insane from thirst and hunger.

Peru, Ind., March 27.—The loss of life here is still unknown, with more bodies being reported hourly floating down the stream. Twelve bodies were found in one house.One report stated that twenty bodies had floated as far as Logansport and were taken from under the interurban bridge there.

Reports from Logansport were that many lives had been lost in that city. Several hundred inhabitants had fled to the hills and thousands of others were crowded in school houses and churches.

Lima, O., March 27.—The east banks of the Grand Reservoir at St. Mary's 25 miles south of here, the largest artificial body of water in the world, broe at 9:20 this morning. The flash came from the oil pumping station located a quarter of a mile from the bulkheads, and who said: "Can tell no more. Must run for life.' '

The entire town of St. Mary's a city of six thousand, is in danger and all residents have been ordered to leave the city. The rush of waters will go north to Decatur, Ind., Fort Wayne, Ind., and a score of smaller cities along the St. Mary's river who have been given warning.

South Bend, Ind., March 27.—The report that the Grand Reservoir had broken out of its banks threw the flooded section of Indiana in the vicinity of Fort Wayne, Peru and Logansport, into a reign of terror. The Wabash river, which will be forced to carry off the greater part of the on-rushing flood is now the highest in history, and if the report proves true, it is feared that hundreds of lives will be lost before the refugees have an opportunity to flee. If the report proves true, Peru, Ind., will be under 30 feet of water tonight. The flood already there was thought to be caused by the bursting of the Grand Reservoir Tuesday.

So do they in Miamisburg, six miles lower down the valley. The Miami in these towns is turned into a thundering torrent.

Franklin, Middletown and Hamiltown lie still further down on the land close to the normal level of the river. All are flooded.

DEATH OF A PRIEST.

Rev. Father Patrick Donlan, better known as Father Patrick, died on Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock at the Providence Hospital, in Washington. The deceased was well-known in Alexandria, where he had many friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret to learn of his death. He was several years ago assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church.

AID FOR THE DISTRESSED.

Alexandria is again ready to express substantial sympathy to the many thousands in the middle west who are now huddled helpless and homeless through no fault of their own. This city has ever been quick to respond to similar appeals not only when disaster has overtaken people in sister states, but she has liberally contributed when moans of the distressed have come from other portions of the world.

Alexandria had a part in alleviating the distress incident to the earthquake in Messina, as well as that brought about by the ill-treatment of Isrealites in Russia, and is now anxious to have her part in contributing to sufferers from wind, floods, fire and famine in contiguous states.

Announcement is made by the First and Citizens' Bank they will receive any contributions for relief of the sufferers in Ohio and Indiana, and transmit the same promptly through the Red Cross Society.

TICKETS FOR MONDAY'S GAME.

Mayor Fisher Forwards Them to Capt. Sweeney For Distribution.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher yesterday forwarded to Capt. W. H. Sweeney, Superintendent of Public schools, tickets for the children who desire to attend the baseball game in Washington on next Monday between the Washington American League team and the Cardinals of this city. A half holiday will be granted by the school authorities to permit the children to attend the game.

The game promises to be a good one. While the Washington baseball team under the watchful eye of Manager C. C. Griffith, have been training down in Charlottesville, Manager Crump, of the Cardinals, has been hard at work preparing his men for the game and when the bell rings at the Concrete Palace the Alexandrians should be in their prime.

In yesterday's issue of a local paper it was stated that Walter Herrell would twirl for the Cardinals against the Nationals which is a mistake. The one who is to do the pitching for the Cardinals is Burgendine, a semi-pro who has been a member of the Cardinals for the last two years and will be assisted by Cox, Wells, Bain, Risdon, and Hayes, while McBride, Jones, Deavers, will do the catching; Ayestrike, 1stb, Miller, 2b. Hayden, 3b, Corl, short, with Nugent and Brown as sub-infielders. The outfield will be in the hands of Trenary, in l. f., Williams, c. f., and Cockrell, r. f., the sub infielders are Owens, Murphy, and B. Brown.

MAY BOMBARD CONSTANTINOPLE

Concerted Attacks to be Made Upon Turks at Chatalja.

READY FOR MEDIATION

Czar Ferdinand and Princes Boris and Cyril Given Ovation by Non-Combatants in Adrianople.

Sofia, March 27.—The bombardment of Constantinople will be the next undertaking of the Bulgarians, according to an announcement by the war office today. General Ivanoff, in command of the army at Adrianople is preparing to move all the seiege guns used there ,to the Chatalja lines. A concerted assault will be made on the Turks at Chatalja and if they are successful, the Bulgarians will have no difficulty in advancing on the Ottoman capital.

Czar Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, and Princess Boris and Cyril in full uniforms and accompanied by a brilliant staff, entered the conquered city of Adrianople today in triumph and were given an ovation by non-combatants remaining among the population.

The complete capitulation of Turkey within the week was the confident prediction of military experts here today. The Bulgarian soldiers who took the Holy City, together with the guns used there will be used immediately to reinforce the army at Chatalja, and it is believed that the combined force will rout the Turks.

With Adrianople in their possession, it is believed now that the allies will not oppose mediation by the great powers.

Shukri Pasah, commander of Adrianople, will have a place in history as one of the world's greatest soldiers. For more than five months he held his city against terrific odds and ceaseless bombardment, nad then when the enemy broke in, Shurki blew up and burned everything inflammable in the city before he handed over his sword to the Bulgarians.

MCMENAMIN TRIAL AGAIN.

Supreme Court Grants Writ of Error and Supersedeas.

For the fourth time an Alexandria jury will be called upon to consider the suit of Mrs. Alice McMenamin and husband against the Southern Railway Co., for $7,500 damages alleged to have been wrought on their property on Duke street by smoke from the company's coal chutes and round house in the southwestern section of the town.

The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday granted a writ of error and supersedeas in the case which will mean that it will be tried again On the first trial the jury returned a verdict of $2,250 in favor of the McMenamins, this the Supreme Court reversed. The jury was unable to agree in the second trial. On the third trial jury awarded $15,00 damages,but this was ordered set aside and the suit dismissed by Justice J.B. T. Thornton of the Circuit Court on the demurrer of the Railway company that it had not been shown that the coal chutes, which were alleged to have caused the damage, were their property.

The McMenamins, in ther petition declare that they erected a handsome brick residence at Duke street and West Lane at a fair estimate of $7,500; that, beginning in 1907, smoke fumes and coal dust from the coaling chutes of the Southern Railway apjoining their residence began to permeate the whole grounds, ruining linen and curtains of the house, killing vegetation in the yard; that this obnoxious condition had ruined the site as a residence, and that as the home had been bought as an investment with the savings of years, severe monetary loss was sustained by the smoke and coal dust.

Edmond Burke and J. K. M. Norton presented the petition for the appellants, while Col. Francis L. Smith and Robert B. Tunstall, of Norfolk, are attorneys for the appellees.

THIRD DIVIDEND.

The creditors of the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation will receive another dividend of five per cent. An order was entered in the Corporation Court this morning by Judge Louis C. Barley, instructing the receiver, Howard W. Smith, to pay the dividend.

The order recites that the payment shall be made to all creditors as shown by the reports of the various commissioners who were appointed to ascertain the indebtedness of the company.

The outstanding claims amount to nearly $550,000 and about $27,000 will be required to pay the dividend.

It will be some days before the creditors actually receive the money as there is a large amount of labor in preparing and sending out the various dividend checks.

This dividend will make the third to be declared, the first was 20 per cent, and the second 10.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Burglars early yesterday morning broke into the ticket office and waiting room of the Washington Utilities Company at Arlington Junction, Alexandria county. Finding no money in the cash drawer they smashed some of the furniture in the place.

State Deputy Bailey, of Petersburg last night paid an official visit to Fitzgerald Council, No. 459 Knights of Columbus.

The annual election of officers of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will be held on April 7th.

Mrs. Elvira Simms, a resident of Fairfax county, died at an early hour this morning at the Alexandria Hospital. Her remains will be forwarded to Franconia by B. Wheatley, undertaker.

S. Berry and W. Hayes, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct,-forfeited their collateral by failing to appear in the Police Court this morning.

FATHER AND SON DIE TOMORROW

Sidna and Claude Allen Pass Time Praying and in Meditation.

MANN IS INEXORABLE.

Letters of Thanks From the Younger Allen and Miss Wissler, His Sweetheart, are Given Out.

Richmond, Va., March 27.—Attorneys for Floyd Allen and his son Claude, condemned to die in the electric chair tomorrow for their part in the shooting up of the Hillsville courthouse on March 14 ,1912, did not make a final appeal for clemency yesterday, but may do so today. In view, however, of Governor Mann's last statement it is certain that the appeal, if made, will be in vain.

Victor Allen spent the entire afternoon with his father and brother, who are reported bearing up well under the mental strain of certain death.

Miss Nellie Wissler, who was engaged to wed Claude Allen, is expected to arrive before the hour of execution and bid her sweetheart the final goodby.

The prison authorities say the condemned men are passing their time in prayer and meditation. They are visisted by ministers of the gospel daily.

A letter, little short of a dying declaration, was issued by Claude Allen to the press yesterday expressing his thanks for the efforts friends have made to save him from execution. The letter reads:

"You have worked hard that justice might be given my father and myself, and I write this to thank you for your efforts to save our lives. As time passes I feel sure that the world will learn the true facts.

"I have but a few days to live, and I want to assure you that your efforts have been for justice. As I will say at the bar of God, so I can say to you—I knew of no conspiracy, and I did not fire the first shot in the courtroom at Hillsville March 14, 1912.

"Praying God to bless you for your kindness, I will say farewell.

CLAUDE ALLEN."

Expressing appreciation for the efforts friends have made in behalf of Claude Swanson Allen, her sweetheart, who goes to the electric chair Friday, Miss Nellie Wissler, of Pulaski, addrssed a letter to the press yesterday full of grief at her lover's fate.

"I had hoped, prayed and expected," she wrote," our Governor would commute Claude's sentence, feeling sure that he had every reason for so doing, but it seems that everything done or said in his favor fell on ears steeled against mercy or justice. Yet I fully and fre elyforgive all who have erred in this matter, as our Heavenly Father says we should.

"While thinking of our great sorrow, God knows I do not forget the loved ones of the unfortunate dead, some of whom I know, and with all of whom I deeply sympathize. Many times I have heard Claude express his great sympathy for them and say that he would much rather have died than to have brought sorrow to the heart of any woman or child."

Even the most optimistic were skeptical yesterday about the usefulness of another appeal to Governor Mann. In the light of the statement that the Governor made at the time of the last commutation, such a step promised no hope. Talk of a public demonstration on behalf of Claude Allen, if it ever existed, was generally discounted as irresponsible hysteria.

Today will witness the final farewells between the condemned men and the friends and relatives to whom the prison authorities will grant admittance. Victor Allen said last night that he intended to spend most of today at the penitentiary in consultation with Claude and his father, and will probably see them for the last time tonight.

The only member of the family from Carroll county who is expected is Garland Allen, youngest brother of Floyd. He is a primitive Baptist preacher, and lies about six miles from Hillsville. In a conversation over the long distance telephone with Victor, Saturday,

An interesting event in fraternal circles in Alexandria will be the lecture tomorrow night before the members of Lone Star Camp, No. 1, American Indian Guards, in their hall at 112 south Fairfax street, by Police Justice Harry B. Caton. Judge Caton will speak on criminology, and will relate incidents that have come under his personal observation during his long services in the Police Court of Alexandria. Large Assemblage in Westminster Building—Thrilling Addresses and Fine Music.

Notwithstanding the rainy conditions last night, the New Westminster Building of the Second Presbyterian Church was crowded to its fullest capacity again by representatives of all denominations who had gathered to enjoy the interesting program which had been prepared for "Congregational Night."

After the opening exercises Rev. Dr. J. Lee Allison, pastor of the church, who presided at the services, expressed his appreciation of the presence of so large a concourse of people. He also announced that inasmuch as the building had not been finished in all its details, the ceremony of turning over the keys of the structure to the moderator would necessarily be postponed to a later date.

Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, a former pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, was unable to be present. Rev. Dr. Theron H. Rice, of Richmond, and Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Sevier, of Augusta, Ga., had responded to the invitation, both of whom delivered practical and stirring addresses.

HEAVY SHOWERS OF RAIN

Jupiter Pluvius in Evidence Since Last Monday—The End in Sight

The rainy weather which set in at the beginning of the week showed no abatement this morning. The wind was still blowing fresh from the southwest and rain clouds were chasing each other across the skies. At the close of yesterday the wind varied at times, but it soon returned to its old quarters. Early in the night there were heavy downpours, accompanied by thunder and lightning.

Between three and four o'clock this morning the wind was roaring from its old quarter of the compass, and shortly after seven o'clock more rain was falling.

A severe storm spread over Washington for a short time yesterday morning which caused considerable damage. Windows were broken, roofs damaged and trees were uprooted.

Forecasts issued by the United States Weather Bureau late last night, based on observations made by forecasters in the Central Western states, indicate that the crest of the rainstorm has passed over Indiana and Ohio, but that it is spreading southward and eastward, with prospects for heavy rains along the Atlantic coast tomorrow. This will be followed by a sudden drop in temperature, as low as freezing, as far south as North Carolina and Tennessee, resulting in danger to the early fruit crops. With the breaking up of the storm in the Central States, strong winds threaten to sweep the East, with gales at sea. Accordingly, storm warnings were issued last night to all points on the coast from Boston south to Jacksonville.

READY FOR TYPHOID.

State Board of Health Has Plans Made to Combat First Outbreak of Disease.

Richmond, Va., March 27.—Following a conference of the officers of the State Board of Health last week, plans have been matured and assignments made to combat the first outbreak of typhoid fever during the coming season. As heretofore, Assistant Health Commissioner Allen W. Freeman will be in charge of the field campaign, with temporary assistants who have worked with him in previous years. It is hoped, in addition, that Surgeon-General Blue will deputise one of his staff to assist in the study of endemic typhoid, which study has been in progress for three years and has yielded interesting results.

Players Badly Hurt.

Roanoke, Va., March 27.—A painful accident occurred on the Roanoke, Virginia League, diamond late Tuesday afternoon, that may result seriously. Outfielder Luttrell, a youngster from Easter College,who is here for a try-out with the Tigers, and Stancliffe, an applicant for the short stop position, collided while running at full speed, with disastrous effects to both, especially Luttrell, who at 11 o'clock had not regained consciousness.

Four of Luttrell's teeth were jarred out and his mouth was badly cut. The physicians are apprehensive that he may have concussion of the brain as a result.

Stancliffe was badly jarred and one eye was closed as a result of the collision.

NO MONEY TO RUN SCHOOLS.

Ambition to Have Better Buildings Outdistanced Appropriation.

Richmond, March 27.—Appropriations for the present year having exhausted, all of the schools of Varina district, Henrico county, save Varina High School and several of the colored ones will have to be closed April 7th. The schools that will remain open the full nine months have raised the necessary money by parties, sociables and individuals contributions.

A number of the other small schools throughout the county will have to be prematurely closed, also, for the lack of funds. The closure of the schools in Tuckahoe district was threatened a few weeks ago, but the citizens came to the rescue by raising the school levy from twenty-three to fifty cents per $100. All of the schools in this district will remain open the full term.

The trouble with the Varina district schools is that they are in debt for new buildings and general school betterments ,payment on which has had to come out of the regular appropriation designed for running the schools the full term. In brief, the appropriation from the state isn't sufficient to run the schools the allotted time and pay interest and principal on the extensive improvements the authorities of the district have undertaken.

URGE FRIEDMANN TO COME.

Will be Given Opportunity to Test His Cure Here.

Richmond, Va., March 27.—Should Dr. Freidrich Friedmann find it possible to visit Virginia, he has been assured by officers of the State Board of Health a most hearty welcome and every possible facility for demonstrating his cure.

Health Commissioner Williams in extending this invitation to Dr. Freidmann wrote the German savant that the patients at the State Sanatorium at Catawba would welcome him with open arms and that the staff at the sanitorium would render him every possible assistance in making a thorough demonstration of his treatment. "From many parts of the State," wrote Dr. Williams, "we have received requests that we do our utmost to bring you to Virginia and give you opportunity of demonstrating your new tuberculosis cure. We gladly second these requests as we think the duty of public health officers should be to encourage investigators in every legitimate way possible."

The State's health officers will do their utmost to bring Dr. Friedmann to Virginia to give his cure a fair test, but are anxious that their invitation to the German scientist be not understood. "We are open to conviction," said an officer of the Board discussing the matter this morning, "we sincerely hope that Dr. Friedmann's discovery is valuable and we certainly shall not be a party to any effort to discredit it in advance. As a bacteriologist of experience, Dr. Friedman is entitled to the most respectful consideration. He will receive it if he can come to Virginia."

"We are, however, most anxious that the public and especially the consumptives of the State defer judgment until the Friedmann remedy has been tried long enough and under conditions sufficiently diverse to demonstrate its merit. The fact that some of the patients given the treatment have shown marked improvement should not be accepted as proof. Under existing methods of treatment, many consumptives improve from the very first, and at the State sanitarium, as at other sanitoria throughout the country, some patients gain weight from the very day of their admission. Dr. Friedman nhas treated a number of early incipient cases, some of whom would have improved if given the open-air treatment. This does not mean that this remedy has no merit; it rather means that the merit of his cure has not yet been proved.

"We hope the doctor can come to this State and give a more comprehensive test."

The public need not fear that Virginia will be backward in this matter. No question of professional ethics is involved, and even if there were this would not stand in the way of giving Dr. Friedmann a fair chance to prove his case. Should the lasting merits of his treatment be proved, the State Anti-Tuberculosis Association will raise a fund and will see that the remedy is purchased for distribution in Virginia."

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only close the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

WOULD SEE VIRGINIA FURTHER DESPOILED.

Virginia has had much to make her weep during the past three-score years, and again she is in the position to cry out, "Deliver me from my friends." The following extraordinary article from the Danville Register needs but little comment:

The people of Alexaidria County, Va., desire to have that county receded to the Federal Government as a part of the District of Columbia, in order that their children may have the privilege of attending the district schools. When one recalls that the county is small, consisting only of a little strip on the south side of the Potomac originally ceded to the national government as a part of the District of Columbia, and that the small area is not densely populated, the appeal appears to be more reasonable. What the people desire more than actual recession is that their children may have educational advantages which the revenue of the county do not provide. The Federal Government finding that a square district embracing some square miles south of the Potomac was not required for the location of the seat of government, some years ago ceded it back to Virginia. Of the small area the City of Alexandria occupies a large proportion. Had this territory not been embraced in the old lines of the District it would have been included in some other Virginia county. It seems to us that the wise thing to do would be the merging of Alexandria and Fairfax counties by the General Assembly. Of course, the officials of Alexandria county would protest against thus being legislated out of office, but that is a small consideration. As a part of Fairfax county adequate school facilities would be available.—Danville Register.

At the outbreak of the civil war a large area was filched from Virginia with the connivance of the government) by the formation of the present state of West Virginia, a commonwealth which has persistenly refused to pay her part of the debt she helped to heap up, notwithstanding the fact that the Supreme Court of the United States has decided she is responsible for her quota.

And now a paper published in the southwestern extremity of the state favors the absorption by the government of one of the oldest cities of the Commonwealth for the purpose of adding the same to the District.

The Goddess of Liberty upon the coat of arms of the State has her foot on the neck of a tyrant, whose crown has rolled from his head. To carry out the spirit of the paper referred to above the figure should be changed to Columbia depriving the goddess of her tresses.

HAWTHORNE WILL EDIT.

Julian Hawthorne and Dr. F. S. Morton reached Atlanta from New York yesterday afternoon in charge of United States deputy marshals and were at once taken to the federal penitentiary to begin serving sentences imposed on them for fraud in using the mails.

Hawthorne was dressed in a dark business suit and wore a red necktie and a light golf cap on his gray head. When brought into the prison they had no handcuffs on and seemed in good spirits. They were at once stripped, bathed, attired in convict uniforms and assigned to cells. Hawthorne's prison number is 4,435. It is said Hawthorne will be made editor of Good Words, the prison paper, as the former editor has been released.

In some prisons, convicts are, if possible, allowed to follow avocations in which they were engaged before conviction. On one occasion a convict was asked by a prison official if he desired to work at his former occupation. The man replied, "Yes. I have been engaged in catching mackerel most of my life."

FIRE AND FAMINE ADD TO WOES INCIDENT TO FLOODS.

The first dispatches from Indiana and Ohio, announcing the deaths of thousands from floods in those states, were but little exaggerated. It is conceded that about three thousand people have lost their lives, while half a million are homeles with all of their worldly possessions wrecked or floating away in the rushing waters.

Fire yesterday was augmenting the horrors which the stricken cities are encountering, and we are told the black horse of famine has also made his appearance.

The Weather Bureau tells us we will have but a short time to await the rolling away of the dismal clouds which have hung over Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania and several states during the present week, and that northwest winds and cooler conditions are enroute towards the Atlantic.

While the reappearance of the day god in all his brightness and cool weather will be hailed with delight by the thousands who have been merely inconvenienced by the gloomy conditions of the past few days, many others will be engaged in the ghastly work of searching for bodies of victims of the elements and gazing upon the debris of what were a week ago happy homes.

In some instances entire families have perished, and in many cases there will be vacant chairs when the survivors gather again around family boards.

ALLEN'S MUST DIE

the preacher said that he would come to Richmond early in the week. His failure to arrive so far is taken by Victor Allen to mean that he will come some time today—in time to bid his brother and nephew farewell.

The visit of Sidna Allen late yesterday afternoon, was without incident. He was admitted to the narrow hallway between the death chambers and spent an hour in low conversation. The death watch stood at a respectful distance, keeping the trio always in view. There was a tense moment at the end of the interview when Sidna grasped the hands of his kinsmen through the grated doors, but the parting was in silence.

The closest observation of visitors and guards has failed to disclose the faintest indication of weakness in the prisoners. Father and son appear to be thoroughly resigned to their fate, and utter no word of complaint or despair. They talk without restraint to their spiritual advisers and yesterday discussed personal affairs with Victor for hours.

With the approach of the fateful day has come an end to the flower offerings. Attentions of this nature reached their high water mark shortly before Easter, when the prison quarters were piled high with florists' packages. There has been none since The stream of mail, however, continues unabated, about fifty letters and post cards arriving yesterday. Many of these contained messages of farewell, and all were carefuily read by the prisoners.

OLD FAIRFAX.

Through the years, in song and story
All the world has learned the glory
Of Virginia's fair old daughter,
Where Potomac's flowing water
Hurries to the sea,
There you find this grand old country,
Rich in memory, worth and bounty,
Rich in names of those whose sires
Braved the floods, withstood the fires
Of war's tragedy.

Now the woods and farmlands hilly
Where the fight raged 'round Chantilly,
Fields of Centreville's sharp battles,
There you'll see the gentle cattle
Grazing in the vales.
Where her pine-woods glint and glisten,
There her streams have seemed to christen
Fairfax with a new-born splendor,
And her sons in fealty render
Love that never fails.

We shall not take a vacation this summer, but perhaps Col. John A Marshall.

If we choose one of our town girls Queen of the next home-coming week would we choose Marshall King?

The Gazette is the oldest daily newspaper in the United States, but the first daily paper was published in Boston. It lasted one day. In that issue it announced that the following day, it would publish the names of all the liars in Boston.

The man who's so frank
That he says what he thinks,
Is a miserable cuss
And he should be, by jinks!
He would be worse off still
Were we all not polite,
If we said what we thought,
His would be a sad plight.

Fire in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 26—Fire is destroying the John C. Jewett building a seven-story brick frame structure, N. Division and Ellicott streets today. Eight men were rescued from a Turkish bath in the building. The loss at 8 o'clock was over $100,000

Lieutenant Clark, of the Indian army medical department, was hanged yesterday at Allabad, British India for the murder of Mr. Fulham, an examiner of military accounts, of which he was found guilty on March , by the Superior Court at Agra. The trial of Lieuteant Clark and of Mrs. Fulham, his accomplice, caused a great sensation in India. They were charged together with poisoning Mr. Fulham and attempting to murder Mrs. Clark in order that they might marry. Mrs Clark was found badl ywounded and later died. The crime was discovered through corresponence which had passed between the two prisoners.

"Young man, when you buy a buggy, be sure it's a Studebaker"

Sound advice from the man who has been driving one for twenty years.

When you buy a Studebaker buggy you are buying all the skill, experience and science in buggy building that half a century can produce. You are protecting yourself against the mistakes of younger builders.

You will always be proud of the Studebaker nameplate, for there isn't a buggy on the road that is its equal for style, luxury and good looks.

Flexible bent-reach gear, graceful lines, solid corner, plugless body, double-ironed shafts, are a few of the special Studebaker features.

The new close-fitting shifting rail is enough in itself to make you buy a Studebaker buggy.

Nowadays, the farmer must not only know how to raise good crops, but he must sell them right.

By keeping in touch with the market and selling when the price is right, the farmer is able to clean up a handsome profit.

The Bell Telephone enables him to keep posted on the market, protects him from loss, and saves his time, energy, and the cost of travel.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House' tract of land located in Mt. Vernon Magisterial District, Fairfax County, Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximateely twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other. 2.

Relief Trains.

New York, March 27.—A relief train loaded with two thousand blankets, great stores of food and clothing and medical supplies, left the Grand Central station early today for Dayton. The train was financed by representatives of the National Cash Register Company, and taken in charge of by A. E. Brainerd, general passenger traffic agent of the New York Central. R. E. Olweiel an executive of the Cash Register Company, who happened to be in New York, made the arrangements on his own responsibility. Great difficulty was experienced in getting New York wholesale firms to interest themselves in sending relief supplies. One firm refused to stock the train with army relief supplies unless $5,000 cash payment on the $11,000 bill of supplies was made

Philadelphia, Pa., March 27.—Thirty-six cars loaded with 30,000 pairs of blankets, 6,000 army tents, 6,000 stoves, 16,000 cots and other articles were today dispatched by the army quartermaster here for the flooded districts via Buffalo on the Lehigh Valley railroad.

WIND AND RAIN IN RICHMOND.

Disturbance Lasts Half an Hour, Causing Much Damage.

Richmond, Va., March 27.—Richmond was visited today by a terrific wind and rain storm which in exactly half an hour caused considerable damage to property. The gale swept citizens off their feet, overturned vehicles, unroofed several buildings and played havoc with a number of plate glass windows. There were no casualities.

mode up from reports received today were as follows:

Wide sections of Dayton were burning through the night.

Five hundred number of estimated dead in Dayton. The real number will not be known until the great Miami has retreated to its banks and bodies are gathered up.

Reports come that the village of West Carrollton just below Dayton has been washed away. The hills that bound the Miami come close together there.

So do they in Miamisburg, six miles lower down the valley.

The loss of life in the calley, which has 100,000 inhabitants may reach that in Dayton or exceed it.

Piqua, in the valley above Dayton, is utterly cut off from the world Farmers say housetops there are barely appearing above the water. Wild rumors fly of the loss of life there. Five hundred are said to be dead but Piua had warning. Probabilities are less than one hundred have been drowned there.

The Scioto and Olentangy rivers are rising in Columbus. Unconfirmed reports say one hundred and fifty are dead there. The town is swamped. Public business has ceased.

Delaware, just north of Columbus, is buried under the Olentangy river, swollen until it exceeds the Mississpi in depth and width. The dead may run to fifty.

Columbus, O., March 27.—Following is a summary of the Ohio flood situation this afternon as closely as it can be estimated:

At Dayton between 300 and 3,000 are dead, the business section of the city is fire-swept, 30,000 are homeless and the property loss it at least $30,000,000.

At Columbus between 50 and 200 are dead, several buildings have burned; 20,000 are homeless and the property loss is at least $10,000,000.

At Delaware, thirteen are dead, 1,000 are homeless and the property loss is $1,000,000.

At Zanesville seven are dead, 4,000 homeless and the property loss is $1,500,000.

Scores of towns in the flood zone can't be reached by wire or rail and figures support Governor Cox's early statement tha the floods have made 250,000 Ohioans homeless.

Railroad, interurban and street care service in the flood zone is at a standstill. The loss to the companies owning these utilities was estimated today by their officials at a total of $40,000,000.

At Tiffin, 50 are reported dead; at Piqua one hunderd; loss of life at Troy, Sidney and Fremont can't be estimated.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.
